this book is about the ethics of nursing and midwifery and how these were abrogated during the nazi era nurses and midwives actively killed their patients many of whom were disabled children and infants and patients with mental and other illnesses or intellectual disabilities the book gives the facts as well as theoretical perspectives as a lens through which these crimes can be viewed it also provides a way to teach this history to nursing and midwifery students and for the first time explains the role of one of the world s most historically prominent midwifery leaders in the nazi crimes

although entanglement has become a keyword in recent german history scholarship entangled studies of the postwar era have largely limited their scope to politics and economics across the two germanys while giving short shrift to social and cultural phenomena like gender at the same time historians of gender in germany have tended to treat east and west germany in isolation with little attention paid to intersections and interrelationships between the two countries this groundbreaking collection synthesizes the perspectives of entangled history and gender studies bringing together established as well as upcoming scholars to investigate the ways in which east and west german gender relations were culturally socially and politically intertwined in the final years of the german colonial empire an ambitious project was undertaken to collect material on native law rules of inheritance and property criminal law political structure and administration on the basis of a standardized questionnaire german missionaries anthropologists and colonial officials were asked to answer more than 100 detailed questions the original answers have not been published but can be found in some archives and libraries in the form of undated brochures under the collective title beantwortung des fragebogens the answers have been revised for the two volume collected edition covering all the former german colonies from namibia there exist 27 reports in all the chapters on the customs laws and political organization of the peoples of namibia vol 2 p 209 435 are restricted to the herero the nama the damara and the san bushmen and have been edited by heinrich vedder and two german lawyers b von zastrow and m schmidt for reasons not explained the original material concerned with the ovambo collected by the missionaries m rautanen and a wulfhorst is not included despite its obvious limitations the book contains a wealth of observations not available anywhere else in this condensed form eriksen moorsom 1989 the book critically examines how concepts such as self determination participation ethics or dialogue developed not least by the feminist movement and directed against repression heteronomy and professional paternalism have been integrated into new contexts and transformed into new social technologies crossing a variety of fields from birthing genetic counselling living wills hospital ethics to population policies and politics of biomedicine it shows that medicine and medicine related policies and practices form crucial arenas of these transformations what we see emerging is procedural management as a new set of social techniques with a preface by william ray arney
